Reviews

- Keep Amarillo Artsy Review (Amarillo, TX) 2022
"Standing ovation for Annie Chalex Boyle, violin, Doug Storey, clarinet and Daniel Del Pino, piano"
- Keep Amarillo Artsy Review (Amarillo, TX) 2020
"If modern visual art asks the viewer to see reality differently, Durations Trio asked the same of the listener."
- International Tuba Euphonium Association Journal (Iowa City, IA) 2019
The review in the ITEA Journal (Summer 2019, Volume 46, Number 4, p. 42) noted, "The Durations Trio proved with their fantastic performances that this particular combination of instruments is worthy of a wider audience."
- Semanas Musicales (Valdivia/Santiago, Chile) 2019
"Annie Chalex Boyle on violin and David Palmer on piano proved to be a musically mature duet with an interesting interpretation...we saw colors and musical forms that we are not used to hearing, but the sound of the violin was so captivating that it managed to make us enjoy and be attentive to what was coming."
- Keep Amarillo Artsy (Amarillo, TX) 2019
"These three demanding works require an enormous empathy between the artists and a sensitivity and artistry equal to the demands of the composer. And, Annie's and David's performance, on the Guarneri and Fazioli, was simply world-class, and right here in Yellow City. We know that they will equally thrill their Chilean audiences, who unfortunately will have to travel up to Texas to hear what so often we take for granted."
